

QUEST TITLE: Dunkin' Dwarfs

QUEST GIVER: Scoutmaster Thaelina

QUEST DESCRIPTION:

"Alright, now listen up. If ye want us to go along with this crazy scheme of yers, there's a wee bit of a problem we need to take care of first. We didn't get no orders from High Command tellin' us we'd be mobilising anytime soon, so I told the crew they could go off and enjoy a bit of R&R. And what do ye know, they've already drank half th'ale we had in stock! Now the lads are smashed off their arses, and truth be told I'd be a lil' proud of them if we weren't in the middle of a bloody war. [Thaelina shakes her head.] Pah, well a hangover's about t'be the least of their concerns.

I need you to run off and get th'squad together so we can brief them on the job. Obviously they won't understand shite if they're too drunk t'even see, so you'll have to sober them up a little. Go on and fill up this bucket with a nice dose of freezin' cold water, and then splash'em up good. We'll meet by th'campfire when you're done."

OBJECTIVE: Use the bucket provided by Scoutmaster Thaelina near the camp water pump to fill it. Then, use the bucket on the following characters to sober them up:

Bhalgrim Foesmasher
Kargan Hammersmith
Thaldor Runeseeker
Mordan Longbeard

QUEST PRE-COMPLETION:

"Well? I don't see everyone gathered yet. Just follow th'smell of ale and regret, and I'm sure you'll find whoever's still missin'."

QUEST COMPLETION:

"Good, that's everyone. I had th'pleasure of dealing with their pissin' and moanin' while you were off splashing the rest. [Thaelina runs a gloved hand over her face, grumbling.] Anywho. Now we can get down to th'brass and tax."
